EVENING SESSION

Of High School Thursday Night Will Supplant Reception Day.

Instead of the usual Reception Day exercises at which time we have been accustomed to displaying the work of the High School students, we made plans several months ago to hold an Evening Session with the High School doing their regular work.

Many of our patrons have never seen a modern High School working under the departmental plan, others have a sort of a hazy impression of how the work is conducted, and some few perhaps, have definite notions, but the majority of them are not familiar with the management and work done in our High School. The session will begin at 7:15 at which time we hope to have 200 visiting patrons seated in the auditorium. Promptly at 7:15 the bells ring and the pupils file to the auditorium where the usual opening exercises are held. In 20 minutes the bells will ring for them to file to their rooms where regular class work will be conducted for a period of 40 minutes. Every room will have large card boards announcing the work in progress in that particular room. At the end of 40 minutes the bells will ring and the pupils will file to their respective class rooms for another 40 minute period. All doors will be open to the visitors, and we not only ask but urge them to appeal to you to come and see the work in progress. If you are interested in German, go to the German room where the work will be conducted in that language; if interested in sewing, go to the sewing room; typewriting, stenography and other usual High School activities accordingly.

We hope to make further announcements in tomorrow's paper.

W. J. CAPLINGER,
Superintendent City Schools.

THREE MORE ADDED—BAPTISMAL SERVICES TODAY

Ten more persons responded to the invitation given in the Yeuell Meetings this week. Four came Sunday, three on Monday and three last night. This makes forty who have responded since the meetings began. Quite a good many who are members of the local churches came forward and shook the hand of the evangelist and other leaders in local work here as an act of consecration and a pledge to aid in the success of these meetings. At the close of the meeting a beautiful moving picture of the wonderful scenes from Atlanta, Georgia, to California were greatly enjoyed. Rev. Homer Carpenter, of Shelbyville, was present and gave a short spirited word of greeting. It was announced that there would be baptismal services in the Christian Church at four o'clock this evening. The subject of the evening's sermon as announced will be "God's Sweatbox."

MAYSVILLE YOUNG LADIES ENTERTAINED

(Portsmouth Times)
The home of the Misses Shively, on Union street, was the scene of a merry party Monday evening, when they entertained about 25 young couple in honor of Mrs. Sam Colburn's guest, Miss Beulah Lee Ginn and Miss Minnie Burns, of Maysville, Ky. At a late hour refreshments of ice cream, cake and strawberries were served. Miss Gladys Ginn, of Ninth street, will entertain Wednesday in honor of these charming young women, who will return to Maysville Thursday, much to the regret of their many friends they have made while visiting in this city.

SLOW TO ACT

It is said that the only way to get anything done is to keep right at it, so again we would ask that the Board of Health make an inspection of the dump on the north side of the East Second street extension, near the scene of the recent fire. Of all the foul odors that ever assailed a person's nostrils this is the worst. It seems as if a liberal use of some disinfectant would do much to allay the smell.

OTHER VACANCIES IN HIGH SCHOOL REPORTED

It is said that two more teachers will hand in their resignations as instructors in the High School department of the Maysville Public Schools soon. If this is the case there will be five new teachers in the High School next year, leaving only two of the present faculty. There will be a special meeting of the Board of Education Thursday night to fill all vacancies.

NIXON RELEASED

Paul Nixon, who has been first basing for the local Ohio State League team since the first of the season, was released by Manager Jones at Huntington Tuesday. Nixon has not been playing up to the form expected of him and when the management secured Al Kaiser it was found that his services were no longer needed. "Nick" has a prospective job with a team in Pennsylvania.

"SHERLOCK HOLMES" COMING TO THE WASHINGTON

Manager Thomas M. Russell has secured another big feature for the Washington Theater in "Sherlock Holmes" which will show here on Monday night, June 5. William Gillette, the renowned actor, will be seen in the title role, supported by Edward Fielding as Dr. Watson, Mario Majeroni and other able actors and actresses.

FEW PITCHED GOOD GAME

At New Richmond, Ohio, Sunday Harry Fed allowed a Cincinnati semiprofessional team two hits and one run in seven and a half innings. He went into the game after ten runs had been made off the New Richmond pitcher, a former big leaguer. Few was released by the local Ohio State League team last week.

JOY RIDERS

Take Machine Belonging To Harold Winder and Leave It In a Bad Shape.

Mr. Harold Winder of Rectortown while transacting business in the city Tuesday had the misfortune to have his Ford automobile badly damaged by some unknown person or persons. He had been transacting some business in town and left his machine standing on East Second street near the Keith & Stephenson Garage. When he returned for the machine some time later the auto could not be found, but after looking around for awhile he discovered it in front of the Modern Laundry. When he tried to run the machine he found that it was out of commission and an investigation showed that the gears had been stripped and ruined.

The matter was reported to the Police Department and an investigation is being made. It is thought that some one took the machine out for a little joy ride and after breaking it left it standing on the street. Mr. Winder says that it will cost $200 to have the machine repaired.

INJURED

Were Robert Nash and R. M. Bocock When Timbers Slip Off House and Scaffold Falls.

Robert C. Nash and R. M. Bocock sustained painful injuries Tuesday afternoon about 4 o'clock while painting the home of Sadie Zimmerman on Plister avenue.

The two men were working on a scaffold about ten feet from the ground and were lowering it when the timbers holding the falls on the top of the house gave way and precipitated them to the ground.

In the fall Mr. Nash got his foot fastened in the stage and sustained a sprained ankle and was otherwise painfully bruised about the feet. Mr. Bocock was hit in the back by one of the falling timbers and was also bruised and injured.

Mr. Bocock was able to walk to the ferry boat and return to his home in Aberdeen, while Mr. Nash was removed to his home on East Second street by Dr. P. G. Smoot and Mr. Fred Thomas.

Although the injuries to both men are painful they are not serious.

IS BROWN MARRIED?

Mystery Confronts the Ledger Office As To Whether We Means One or Two.

It is not often that such a perplexing question as the one that now confronts us arises. We do know however that one James Brown, compositor and "make-up" man on the Ledger staff went to Portsmouth Saturday afternoon and has become lost, strayed or stolen—presumably the latter.

On Monday morning the following telegram was received at this office: "Portsmouth, Ohio, 8:45 a. m., May 22, 1916.

"Mr. Frank Nash, care of the Ledger Maysville, Ky.

"Unavoidably delayed. We will be home tomorrow. Davis take care of my end today.

"BROWN." A cursory glance did not reveal the fact that the telegram said, "WE will be home." It was not until Tuesday afternoon that we discovered the error of our way.

The mystery that now confronts us is whether the "we" means James Brown and wife or was merely a slip of the pen in writing the message. Suspicion that "Jimmy" slipped one over on his friends and was married are in the air and a denial from Mr. Brown is the only thing that will knock the theory in the head.

Several hundred people enjoyed the excursion from this city to Manchester, Ohio, Tuesday night on the steamship Homer Smith.

President Wilson turned the postal service over to men who were without practical experience either in that line of work or in any other large affairs. One of the experiments of the amateur postal managers was the establishment of a large number of terminal offices for the handling of mail in railway stations. Railway companies were required to provide the space and equipment, which in some instances, required the erection of new buildings. The Department entered into a 10-year rental contract, with a clause included providing for the cancellation of the lease on 90 days notice. The Department discovered the mistake it had made and cancelled a number of the leases, leaving the companies to stand the loss. While the general public does not much concern itself over injuries to rail way companies, though it should because in the end it pays the bills, yet it ought to be particularly interested in the qualifications of men placed in charge of the postal service, and also in the maintenance of the "square deal."

It is reported in Washington that the White House would like to see Samuel Untermyer receive the Democratic nomination for Senator in New York. From the White House point of view, Mr. Untermyer is a most deserving Democrat. No man in the country—unless it is Col. House—has rendered larger or more welcome personal service to the President than Mr. Untermyer has. But whether the Democrats of New York and the voters of that State will think themselves bound to pay the President's debts by political preferment is at least doubtful.

California fruit growers are protesting because Great Britain has placed an embargo upon fruit importations, in order that there may be more ship space available for commodities more urgently needed for purposes of war. Those California people are not likely to read with very receptive minds the claim of the Democrats that the war is not the cause of return of prosperity in the East.

A Democratic club in Portland, Oregon, refused to endorse vice president Marshall for renomination on the ground that he is a "Psychological negative." Just what that is, it might be difficult to say, but possibly a psychological negative on the end of that Democratic tariff bill might have been a good thing for the country. Or any other kind of a negative.

It is noticeable that the Administration is not doing so much boasting as formerly, over its "diplomatic victories." It has finally come to realize that every citizen of ordinary intelligence can see that we are just about where we were a year ago, except that we have not grown in the respect of foreign countries.

The Wilmington, North Carolina, Star boasts of a "return to prosperity under a Democratic administration." It does not mention the loss of prosperity under that same administration nor give the date when that prosperity began to return. It seems to have a horror of even the thought of war.

Bryan says he will at least be at the St. Louis Convention as a newspaper man. That remains to be seen. The Superintendent of the press section may refuse to seat representatives of monthly periodicals when there is such a large demand from correspondents of daily papers.

New York Democrats are said to be puzzled by the problem of a candidate for Senator to succeed Mr. O'Gorman. Inasmuch as the Republican candidate is the one who will be elected anyway, we can see little for the Democrats to worry about.

President Wilson planted an elm tree to Lincoln, at Princeton, N. J. Must have been a slippery elm.

HE'S IN

T. R. Finally Leaps—Tells Meyer and His Aids He Will Accept Proffer of Their Assistance in Presidential Fight.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., May 22—Theodore Roosevelt followed his hat into the presidential ring this afternoon, when, in unequivocal language, he accepted the offer of the Roosevelt Republican Committee, headed by former Secretary of the Navy George von L. Meyer, to work for his nomination by the Republican National Convention.

In accepting the offer voiced by Mr. Meyer Colonel Roosevelt paid his respects to the candidacy of Justice Hughes. While he did not refer to Justice Hughes by name, there was no room for doubt in the minds of his hearers as to whom he had in mind.

No man, said the Colonel, should be named for the Presidency who announces himself in vague terms "on Americanism and preparedness," and unless, "whether he be in or out of office, he frankly and fully takes the position on the concrete facts which are up for decision, and applies the abstract statement directly to those concrete facts."

"Against Them Unless Open"
He added that "any man who is not aggressive openly and specifically for these principles (the principles of Americanism and preparedness) is against them."

With Mr. Meyer came more than a score of Republicans representing states from Maine to California who had joined in the movement to organize Republican efforts in his behalf, representing the 200 who had signified their intention of joining the movement. With him also came a delegation of the "home folks," the village druggist, the village Justice of the Peace and local station agent H. L. Marsh. Mr. Roosevelt received them in the north room at Sagamore Hill where, amidst the trophies of the chase and souvenirs from all parts of the world, they awaited.

"Sentiment Is Widespread"
Secretary Meyer got down to business quickly, saying:

"A committee of Republicans has been formed to crystallize the demands among Republican voters for the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt by the Republican party for the Presidency. We believe the sentiment for your nomination is widespread among the people in every state of the Union. The purpose of our committee is to organize this sentiment and make it effective and at the same time to aid the Republican party in going before the country reunited and in full strength with a candidate, who better than any other man is listened to and trusted by the great mass of the people and who represents the spirit of Americanism awakened by you in the present crisis of the nation's history."

Says He's Touched By Action
"I am naturally very deeply touched and pleased by your action. I accept it absolutely in the spirit in which you have taken it. You are for me because you regard me as presenting and embodying the aggressive movement for thorough-going Americanism and thorough-going preparedness. Your devotion is to the cause, and to the man only in so far as he for the time being embodies the cause. This is precisely the attitude I took in my Trinidad statement."

"I now hold, and shall continue to hold, this a great time of crisis in our country's history, because it is a great crisis in the history of the world. If we are unprepared, if we are split and sundered by rivalries of creed, of sectional and national origin; if our country's action is to be conditioned by helplessness without and they hyphenate within, the career of the United States as a great factor in the world's civilization is at an end."

"There is no use of being for half measures of Americanism and preparedness. Still less is it of any use for any public man to announce himself in vague general terms as in favor of Americanism and preparedness, unless his whole course of action in public life has made it evident, and now makes it evident, that he means just exactly what he says. Unless, if he is in office or has been in office, his career has been such as in fullest measure to warrant the belief that he is a man of deeds and not of words in this matter, and unless in every crisis, whether he be in or out of office, he frankly and fully takes a position on the concrete facts which are up for decision, and applies the abstract statement directly to those concrete facts."

Fighting For Principles
"General professions are utterly worthless unless, in the first place, the man making them is ready to immediately apply them to every concrete case as it actually arises, and unless, in the second place, when he has the opportunity at once turns his words into deeds."

"I am fighting for these principles. The year the principles you are organizing to support, and with all my heart I welcome such support, accepting it as given primarily to the principles and only secondly for myself. "Any man at this time of crisis who is not aggressively, openly and specifically for these principles is against them and every patriotic man should treat our public servants on this basis."

Following the speech Mr. Meyer presented the members of the committee, many of whom were known to the Colonel. Prof. Hiram Bingham, of Yale, an alternate to the Republican Convention, said that he had turned to Roosevelt after a trip through Peru, where he found that South Americans had the idea the United States was afraid to fight.

Thought Americans Afraid
"That squares exactly with Edmund Heller's experience," reported the Colonel. "He found people thinking that we were afraid of Mexico, afraid of Germany, and they interpreted declarations of 'being too proud to fight' as meaning we were afraid to fight."

William C. Ralston, son of a former Governor of California and Subtreasurer of the United States at San Francisco in the Taft Administration, said: "Colonel Roosevelt, four years ago I was so heartily with Taft that when his name was taken off the official ballot in California I voted for Wilson rather than for you."

"Fine, lovely," cried Roosevelt. "But I am glad to see you here today."

"I'm trying now to atone for 1912," said Ralston.

Washington, May 22—By vote of 60 to 37 the House, in the Committee of the Whole, today adopted an amendment to grant suffrage to the women of Porto Rico. It was proposed by Republican Leader Mann.

Mr. Mann explained that he offered the amendment because of the requirements of the bill, which would make it impossible for any person who did not read either Spanish or English or pay $3 taxes annually to vote.

"There are many women in Porto Rico who read both Spanish and English and pay more than $3 annual tax, and it would be unfair to deny them the vote," said he.

FREE SEEDS DROPPED

Washington, May 22—The agricultural appropriation bill was reported by the Senate Committee today carrying $23,900,000, a reduction of nearly $750,000 from the total as passed by the House. The committee cut in half $2,500,000 provided by the House for foot and mouth disease eradication, and eliminated entirely $200,000 allowed for free distribution of seeds. Items for general expenses of the Animal Industry and Soils Bureau were increased $386,000. If the bill passes as reported there will be a fight in conference, as the House always insists upon its free seeds.

Maysville People Have Found That Ill Health Follows

Do you ever feel that you simply can't go any further—that you must have rest from that lame and aching back—relief from the constant, dead-tired feeling—freedom from those stabbing, darting pains? Likely your kidneys are worn and tired and need help. The kidneys work night and day, removing uric acid from the blood and other waste created by expenditure of strength and energy. Naturally a life of unusual activity doubles the duties of the kidneys and in time the strain generally tells. Doan's Kidney Pills have brought new strength to thousands of bad backs and quick relief to weakened kidneys, so users say. Let them do the same for you.

S. O. Duncan, blacksmith, Flemingsburg, Ky., says: "I had severe backaches and my kidneys were out of order, their action being irregular. Hearing about Doan's Kidney Pills, I gave them a trial and was soon convinced of their merit. They strengthened my kidneys and back."

A beautiful story how Katy mothered seven children by teaching school. See them protect themselves against the Mexicans until the Cowboys arrive to rescue them.

RECORDS

Moved From Progresso Inland By Mexicans, Who Feared American Attack.

Mobile, Ala., May 22—Fear of a bombardment by an American fleet caused the removal of all official records from the Custom House at Progresso, Mexico, to Merida, 30 miles inland, on May 12, according to Captains of two vessels reaching here today from Yucatan with sisal cargoes.

The Mexican garrison at Progresso dug trenches, placed artillery and made other preparations to meet an attack by Americans. The two vessels, the schooners Rena J. Murphy and Susan B. Dantzer, were both notified to be ready to take off American refugees.

Only one Mexican port official was left in Progresso to clear the vessels. Progresso was growing quieter when the vessels left, as no American fleet had appeared.

FLOOD OF LAVA FLOWING FROM CRATER OF MAUNA LOA, HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

Honolulu, Hawaii, May 22—Mauna Loa, volcano, which was in eruption last week, has broken out again.

A flood of lava, which burst forth last night, at an elevation of 7,000 feet, is flowing down the mountain side, traveling southwest at the rate of about a mile an hour, following two channels. The glow illuminates the entire landscape at night. Newspapers can be ready by its light many miles away.

The course taken by the lava is that followed by the last eruption, about nine years ago. The sea is about 50 miles from the mountain in this direction and there is little property of value in that direction.

YES, 'T'WILL BE GAY TIME WHEN REPUBLICANS MEET

Chicago, May 22—Indications are that the Republican National Convention of 1916 will be one of the noisiest and most exciting in the history of the party.

With 16 candidates for President in the field and with the result in doubt until the last ballot has been taken there is likely to be an unusual amount of noise and enthusiasm.

Fred W. Upham, Chairman of the local Committee on Arrangements was informed today that plans have been made to bring more than 100 bands and 50 glee and marching clubs to Chicago during convention week. Harry Daugherty, of Columbus, telegraphed that he would bring a glee club of 65 to Chicago to boom the candidacy of Theodore E. Burton, of Ohio.

Word comes from Indiana that every large city in the state is planning to send either a band or a marching club to the convention for Charles W. Fairbanks. Similar reports were received from other states which have candidates.

The demand for convention tickets continue to increase. Today season tickets were quoted at $250 each.

Sergeant-at-Arms William F. Stone today began the appointment of his 1,900 assistants, which include 1,600 Assistant Sergeants-at-Arms, 100 messengers and 100 pages. He has received 5,000 applications for the positions, which will be filled from the recommendations made by members of the Republican National Committee.

GOLD PIECES AS BUTTONS

(Kansas City Cor. New York American)

Travelers gasped and depot ushers made a center rush for the entrance at the Union Station as a tall Westerner, his coat gleaming with yellow buttons, came through the door.

"Sure," said the stranger. "I'm Fred McCormack, land man, of Reno, Nev. We grow money in our country."

McCormack used $10 and $20 gold pieces as buttons. Four $20 coins ornamented the front of his coat. There were six $10 gold pieces on his vest, three $10 pieces on each sleeve, and a $50 gold piece was used as a watch chain.

NEW NOTE

Ready to Go Forward—Chief Executive Puts the Finishing Touches on Protest Against British Mail Interference.

Washington, May 22—President Wilson tonight completed a note vigorously renewing the protest of the United States to Great Britain against interference with American mails. The communication is expected to go forward tomorrow.

Secretary Lansing and legal experts at the State Department made the original draft of the note and the President revised its phraseology. It is made up largely of legal arguments to meet the contentions of Great Britain in the memorandum concurred in by France, presented to the State Department several weeks ago. The United States takes the position that practices complained of in the first complaint of the first complaint on the subject have been continued, and that the American Government must now insist more emphatically that they cease.

State Department officials consider that the chief weakness of the position of Great Britain is her policy of taking neutral mail vessels into British jurisdiction and submitting them to local censorship regulations. It is understood that it is on this point that the renewed protest is based chiefly. The British memorandum avoided this phase of the question. Rapid transmission was promised to "true correspondence," but the right to seize contraband sent in the mails was maintained.

The Hague convention of 1907, the United States contends, guarantees the inviolability of postal correspondence and the new note again points to the inconvenience and actual money losses resulting from the continuance of the British policy of taking neutral vessels into British ports and there examining and detaining the mails. A mass of evidence has been collected showing the effects on American business of the British policy.

CAMERA FRIGHTENS POOR PABLO

Chihuahua, Mexico, May 21 (via El Paso Junction, May 22.) Pablo Lopez, perpetrator of the Santa Isabel massacre, in which 18 Americans were killed, and author of many other outrages in the name of Francisco Villa, who has faced gunfire many times without flinching, crouched in terror before the eye of a camera here today.

He thought the taking of his picture by an American newspaper man was but the prelude to his execution. For hours after he had been photographed he inquired anxiously of every warder who came near his prison cell if he was about to be led forth to death.

Since his capture, which took place near the scene of his supreme crime, Pablo has been confined here, while his wounds are treated.

While he is slowly recovering the former Villist lieutenant is unable to stand unsupported. He starts nervously and cries out at each footfall in the prison corridor.

Again he apparently regains his courage, and maintains that he was only the tool of Villa and asserts he will die without flinching if it is true this country requests his death.

Questions of policy also enter into the delay of Lopez's execution. It is hoped he may divulge valuable information.

WIVES WHO ARE TO BE PITIED

In the June Woman's Home Companion a writer says:

"I know plenty of women in town who paid their bills and connive with their dressmakers so as to cheat their husbands and get spending money. I also know some country women who can't get their husbands to put running water in the house, who cook on old-fashioned—ad broken—stoves in inconveniently badly-arranged kitchens, who have neither vacuum cleaner, fireless cooker, dishwasher, clothes washer, or anything else to make work easy. They don't even get the egg and butter money, or they might buy these things themselves."

CAT MOTHERS RABBITS

(North Wales (Penn.) Cor. Phila. Record)

Losing her kittens, a cat owned by George Hoffman, of North Wales, showed her mother instinct when she brought in four wild rabbits from the fields and is mothering them.

Mr. Hoffman noticed, however, that the little cottontails were not thriving on the milk being supplied them by their foster mother, and to prevent their starving, began feeding them with a spoon.

One of them was so famished that it was necessary to use a fountain-pen filler to feed it. Now all of them are thriving.

Sometimes people mistake false pride for culture.

ARE "SMOKES" CIGARS OR CIGARETTES?

Judge Thomas Has Has Question to Decide for United States Court—Question Given to Wrapper—Must Decide.

Hartford, Conn., May 23—Judge Edwin S. Thomas in the United States Court has an interesting question to consider in the case of the United States against "100 little cigars," so-called. The question is whether the so-called "little cigars" are cigars, or cigarettes, for the purpose of a tax to the internal revenue department.

The Tobacco Production Company, located in New Milford, manufactured the so-called "little cigars," and aims, for the purposes of the tax to the Government, that they are an all tobacco product and are liable to a tax of 75 cents per 1,000. The claim of the Government, however, is that the "smokes" made by the Tobacco Production Company come under the classification of cigarettes, and that the tax on them should be $1.25 per 1,000, instead of 75 cents, as the manufacturers claim.

The whole question hinges on the classification that is given to the wrapper. The manufacturer takes the tobacco and subjects it to a sweating and steaming process, and, after the juice is extracted from the tobacco and drawn off, the substance that remains is put into a beater machine, and then it follows a part of the process that is used in making paper, and finally from the machinery is produced a nice leaf that is used as a wrapper on the "little cigars," so-called. The question for Judge Thomas is to decide whether the "smokes" are little cigars or cigarettes.

HOW ONE WIFE COMPELLED HER HUSBAND TO MAKE GOOD

"The editor of a daily newspaper in a Southern city fell in love with and became engaged to the society reporter. They were about the same age—both fine, ambitious young people, very much in love and very eager to be married. They were far away from their parents and there was no one to interpose any objection to an immediate marriage. They had a brief honeymoon, and then came back—he to his desk and she to hers.

"Two or three years passed. His salary was increased to the amount which he had at first thought would be sufficient for their needs—but meanwhile their scale of living had risen. They did not want to drop back into cheaper apartments and a less pleasant mode of life; so it was decided that she would continue at her desk for a while longer.

"One night she found a gray hair in his head. The next night she came home and announced that she had resigned her job.

"Resigned?" he gasped. "Why, what are we going to do?"

"Dear," she answered, you are going to support us both. You're too good a man to be wasting your life in a job that doesn't pay you enough to support a family. Our lives are running away, and we have never had a real home; before we know it we will be old—without friends, without children, without any of the things that make life worth living. My resignation doesn't take effect for a month. Tomorrow you're going to get a month's vacation and you're going to New York and find another job."

"Today the man—now nearly forty—is making seventy-five hundred a year in a large advertising agency. He says frankly that if it had not been for the incentive which his wife gave him, for the actual necessity which she created by resigning her position, he might have gone on into old age in a job much below his possibilities."

Every man must catch cold for himself.

The man who feathers his own nest must be a bird.

CAN'T GET D. D. DEGREE UNLESS THEY EARN IT

Those Who Want It From Union Seminary Will Have to Work For It, So Says President Moore.

Richmond, Va., May 23—Union Theological Seminary, Presbyterian institution of Gintar Park, will confer no more honorary degrees of doctor of divinity. Hereafter those who get such honors will have to work for them and work hard, it was announced by President W. W. Moore.

Decision to that effect, said Dr. Moore, was reached a day or two ago by the board of trustees when they were in session here during seminary finals. In the future those who wish to obtain a doctor of divinity degree, which is usually known as a D. D., will be assigned a prescribed course to study preparatory to the writing of a thesis worked out on some subject along original lines.

Value of such degrees will be greatly enhanced hereafter by this move on the part of the seminary officials, it is believed. In the past these degrees have been conferred here and there without any test whatever. In fact, so many colleges of one sort and another have scattered them around that they have been considerably cheapened.

YOUR GIRL!

Is she following the fashions set by the undressed chorus girls of the stage?

Is she bedecked in flimsy garments meant to display the contour of a shapely figure?

Is her walking dress cut so low that one would think she was on the way to the opera and so high that the color of her stockings is discernible?

Are her fingers, neck and arms covered with gaudy jewels, cheaply imitated on the five and ten cent counters?

Is she dining, drinking and dancing with the giddy midnight throng in an atmosphere of excitement?

Is she joy-riding on Sundays and neglecting the church of her father and mother?

Is the result of pleasure, frivolity and fashion the consuming passion of her heart?

Is she going the pace in a restless desire to shine in the blazing light of the cabaret and to be known as one of the fast set?

Is she walking the primrose path of dalliance with no thought of the journey's dreadful end?

Is she seeking the love of one true man or basking in the sunshine of many without manhood?

Is modesty a mockery, the prayer book and Bible relics of the past and mother's advice the played-out whim of the antiquated?

Is she no longer a comfort to those at home, the confiding delight of her mother and the pride of the family circle?

If this is your daughter, are you proud of her? Look at her latest photograph. Then take down the picture of her mother or grandmother. Which do you like the better? And which do the men of real worth prefer?

TO CARRY MONEY SAFELY

"You may have given only a passing thought of where and how to carry money when you go traveling. To be safe, do not carry tickets, money and all valuables in one pocket. Buy a bill folder of sufficient size to take care of the railroad and steamer tickets, baggage checks, and so on. Probably the safest place to carry this wallet will be in the inside pocket of your coat. Your money—and in traveling in America it never is necessary to carry in cash any such amount as eight hundred dollars—will be safest and in the most convenient place for you if carried in a small leather folder in a side pocket of your trousers. Small change might be kept in the same pocket, but nothing else, for loose articles will be in the way when your fingers reach hastily for street car or cab fares. Money in a side pocket of one's trousers ordinarily is immune from pickpockets, much more so than if carried in the rear trousers pocket."

WANT BALL PLAYERS

Washington, D. C., May 23—The United States Marine Corps is in the market for baseball players.

Recruiting officers have been directed to bend their energies toward the securing of first-class ball players in various parts of the world.

The Marine Corps teams at Peking, China, and Panagua, Rincaran, are considered by many travelers to be thoroughly representative American teams of near big league calibre.

THE JOY OF MOTHERHOOD

Words of Encouragement to Childless Women.

Motherhood is woman's natural destiny, but many women are denied the happiness of children simply because of some curable derangement.

Among the many triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is its marvelous power to overcome such derangements, as evidenced by the following letter:

Worcester, Mass.—"I suffered from female ills, and was advised to have an operation, but a friend who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and who has six children, told me to try it. It has helped me so much that I am now well and have a baby who is the picture of health, and I thank the Vegetable Compound for my restoration to health."

—Mrs. BERT GARVEY, 20 Hacker St., Worcester, Mass.

In many other homes, once childless, there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice—it will be confidential.

PARTING

There is never a parting on this old earth
Let it be with the living or dead
But is tinged with a sadness from memory's birth
Of the might have been there in its stead.

There is always regret for a something that's lost
And a wish we had only known
More of this friend at whatever the cost
Whose life may have aided our own.

A something from out of one's life has flown.
For every heart has a niche of its own,
And a place in your own to share.

It may be with pleasure it may be with pain
We whisper the word good bye
But we catch a note of the old refrain
That sings of forever and aye.

BLUEGRASS SEED CROP SHORT

Carlisle, Ky., May 23.—Reports now indicate that the Kentucky bluegrass seed crop, especially in this part of the bluegrass district, will be one of the shortest in years. It is reported that almost all of the bluegrass pastures have taken heavily in white clover and that the bluegrass has been smothered out largely. The dry weather also damaged the bluegrass crop heavily.

ESTATE OF HENRY GEORGE SMITH, Dec'd.

Smith, aged 37, drowned with wife. Left 3 children—all boys—and Estate of $80,000. No other known relative. Court named a Guardian, a stranger, and Trustee of Estate, also stranger. As boys came of age their shares were paid them. No Trust Estate to protect them during their early years of business ignorance. One boy was swindled by a land scheme; dropped his all. Another boy "blew" his for fast living. The last lost on Wall Street his share. All could have been avoided by a Trust estate protecting the boys until they had learned the value of money.

May we tell you why this could not happen to ANY Estate where we are Executor? We will be glad to advise you without charge. All consultations strictly confidential.
